ADVERTISING POLICY, TERMS & CONDITIONS

TC Notes is published by the TCCSA and it has total editorial control over it.

Advertisements may be placed by businesses, as well as members of the Association.

Members must be in good standing, meaning all membership assessments and related charges have been paid.

Advertising is not guaranteed and is based on availability and content.

Advertisements should clearly identify the advertiser and the product or service offered.

Advertisements should not contain editorial content or political messaging.

The Association's logo may not be used as part of ad content, nor should an ad contain any reference that would lead the reader to assume endorsement or recommendation by the Association. It should be clear from the design that the content is an advertisement and not newsletter copy.

All advertisements must adhere to all applicable laws and regulations.

TC Notes is intended to be a positive reader experience. The board of directors or its designee reserves the right to determine whether a submission will be accepted based on the content. The board of directors reserves the right to refuse any advertisement that does not reflect well on the Association or contains content that the board, in its sole discretion, believes is misinformation or disinformation or may cause distress to readers.

The following types of advertising will normally be rejected: (1) illegal or inappropriate businesses, products, services, and content (i.e., copyright, counterfeit goods, drugs and drug paraphernalia, unauthorized ticket sales, etc.); (2) misleading, confusing or deceptive content; (3) adult sexual content; (4) alcohol; (5) gambling; (6) hateful, inflammatory, or discriminatory content; (7) tobacco; (8) weight-loss products; (9) weapons; (10) political content; (11) profanity; and (12) defamatory or libelous statements.

Advertiser agrees that the Travis Country Community Service Association (TCCSA) and/or the TC Notes editor have the right to reject advertising:

1. If the editors determine that the advertising is inconsistent with their understanding of the community's objectives, values or image or the aesthetic standards of TC Notes.
2. If advertiser fails to meet deadlines for payment, artwork submission and/or design approval.
3. For any other reason or for no reason.

Advertising space is sold on a "first-come first-serve" basis. Publisher reserves the right to defer ad to future issue if deadlines are not met.

Further, the TCCSA and the TC Notes editor reserve the right to delay, suspend, or terminate publication at any time. The TC Notes is not responsible for misprints or pixelated images in pre-designed ads.

Advertiser releases the TCCSA and TC Notes from any and all loss, liability or expense occasioned by Advertiser by reason of a) any failure to publish advertising pursuant to this Contract or b) failure to return ad media (original art work, disks, CD's).
